3. Tremaine Medal: Call for Nominations / La Médaille Marie Tremaine: Candidatures

The Marie Tremaine Medal is awarded by the BSC/SbC for outstanding service to Canadian bibliography and for distinguished publication in either English or French in that field. The medal may be awarded in 1999, preferably to a member of the Society and/or a Canadian citizen. Members of the Council of the Society are not eligible for the award while they are in office. Previous winners of the Tremaine Medal are: Marie Tremaine, 1970; John Hare and Jean-Pierre Wallot, 1973; Bruce Braden Peel, 1975; William F. Morely, 1977; Reginald Eyre Watters, 1979; Olga Bernice Bishop, 1981; Alan F.J. Artibise, 1983; Douglas Grant Lochead, 1985; Agnes Cecilia O'Dea, 1987; Sandra Alston, 1988; Gloria Strathern, 1989, 1989; Claude Galarneau, 1990; Patricia Fleming, 1992; Joan Winearls, 1993; Paul Aubin, 1994; Ernie Ingles, 1996. The Tremaine Medal Committee now invites nominations for this award. Each nomination must be supported by a biographical note, a list of principal publications, and other relevant information, and sent by 31 January, 1999 to: Chair, Tremaine Medal Committee, c/o Apollonia Steele, Special Collections, University of Calgary Library, 2500 University Drive N.W. Calgary, AB T2N 1N4.

SbC/BSC attribue la Médaille Marie Tremaine pour services exceptionnels rendus à la cause de la bibliographie canadienne et pour des publications de haute qualité dans ce domaine, soit en français, soit en anglais. La Société compte décerner la Médaille en 1999, avec préférence accordée aux membres de La Société et aux citoyens canadiens. Les membres du Conseil de La Société ne sont pas admissibles pendant les années de leur mandat. La Médaille Tremaine a précédemment été décernée à: Marie Tremaine, 1970; John Hare and Jean-Pierre Wallot, 1973; Bruce Braden Peel, 1975; William F. Morely, 1977; Reginald Eyre Watters, 1979; Olga Bernice Bishop, 1981; Alan F.J. Artibise, 1983; Douglas Grant Lochead, 1985; Agnes Cecilia O'Dea, 1987; Sandra Alston, 1988; Gloria Strathern, 1989, 1989; Claude Galarneau, 1990; Patricia Fleming, 1992; Joan Winearls, 1993; Paul Aubin, 1994; Ernie Ingles, 1996. Le Comité de sélection de la Médaille Marie Tremaine sollicite des candidatures pour le concours 1999. Veuillez faire parvenir les dossiers de candidatures en les accompagnant d'une notice biographique, d'une liste de publications, et de tout renseignement supplémentaire pertinent, au plus tard le 31 janvier 1999 à: Comité de la Médaille Marie Tremaine, c/o Apollonia Steele, Special Collections, University of Calgary Library, 2500 University Drive N.W. Calgary, AB T2N 1N4.

4. Amtmann and Tremaine Fellowships

The Bernard Amtmann Fellowship is offered in memory of Bernard Amtmann (1907-1979), the noted bookseller and specialist in Canadiana. The Fellowship is offered every three years and thereafter to support the work of a scholar in one of Mr. Amtmann's principal areas of interest: Canadiana, book collecting, bookselling, and bibliography. Special Consideration will be given to applications from those working on some aspect of the book trade. The Fellowship, which is in the amount of $1,500.00 is open to non-Canadians and to those who not members of the Bibliographical Society of Canada.

The Tremaine Fellowship is offered in memory and through the generosity of Marie Tremaine (1902-84), the doyenne of Canadian bibliographers. The Fellowship was instituted in 1987 and is offered annually to support the work of a scholar engaged in some area of bibliographical research, including textual studies and publishing history, and with a particular emphasis on Canada. The Fellowship, which is in the amount of $1,000.00, is open only to members of the Bibliographical Society of Canada.

Both fellowships will be awarded only in support of specific research projects, involving discrete areas of research. Projects which are part of some larger undertaking will not be considered unless they can be completed on their own and can lead to findings which are reportable or publishable in themselves. The funds available are for out-of-pocket expenses such as travel fares and subsistence, and technical services or supplies, and may not be used for salaries or stipends.

Applications should be made on the form provided in this issue of the Bulletin and must be accompanied by a detailed budget proposal, a full curriculum vitae, and two sealed letters of reference. They should be mailed to The Chair, Fellowships Committee, Bibliographical Society of Canada, P.O. Box 575, Postal Station P, Toronto, ON M5S 2T1, and must be postmarked no later than 28 February, 1999.

6. Summary of the BSC Recommendations on the Future Role of the National Library of Canada.

This list of recommendations is based upon the submission made on behalf of the Bibliographical Society of Canada by Anne Yandle, Peter F. McNally, and Eric Swanick to the Study being conducted by Professor John English on the National Library and the National Archives of Canada. The document was submitted in September 1998.

Mandate:

1. That the Library's mandate be strengthened in the areas of research and research support.
2. That in addition to other duties and in conjunction with other institutions, the Library become a research centre for Canadian studies.
3. That the Library develop a centre for the study of the book in Canada.
4. That the Library become a funding agency for a) bibliographical research, b) the history of the book, c) and the compilation of scholarly bibliographies.
5. That the Library resume the sale and distribution, on a cost recovery basis, Canadian theses either on its own or in co-operation with some other Canadian organization.
6. That the Library develop foreign language collections as a backup resource for other Canadian libraries.

Collections and Acquisitions

7. That the Library accelerate its collecting of literary, historical, and other non-governmental papers and records.
8. That the Library collect Canadian publications in electronic formats, as exhaustively as it does other publications in paper formats.

Access

9. That the Library be strengthened so that it may serve as a role model to other libraries and the public on how libraries can adapt to the demands of the emerging electronic information environment.
10. That the library maintain and extend its bibliographical control of Canadian publications in paper, microform, and electronic formats and make the bibliographic data readily available to individuals and other libraries.
11. That the Library be provided with the resources necessary to ensure that Canadian library cataloguing remain in Canada.
12. That the Library's policy towards exhibitions and programmes include the following: sending travelling exhibitions across the country, encouraging other libraries to develop exhibitions, funding library exhibitions, and providing courses on exhibitions and programming.

Preservation

13. That the Library monitor closely the competing claims of electronic, microform, and paper based formats for the preservation of the artifacts of information and knowledge.
14. That the Library revive its national preservation programme.

Information Management Issues

15. That the Library assist federal and provincial governments in communicating with citizens, through exhaustively collecting and bibliographically controlling government publications.

Organizational Structure

16. That the National Library and the National Archives be encouraged to co-operate with one another as much as possible, while remaining separate institutions.
17. That the Library's funding be increased so that it can properly fulfill its mandate.

Leadership

18. That a National Librarian with energy, and ability be appointed to raise the profile of the Library, give it a renewed sense of direction, and obtain the resources necessary to fulfill its mandate.
19. That the Library's key role, in developing and implementing national cultural and information policies and activities, be publicly promoted and acknowledged.

7. Notice of Next General Meeting.

The next general meeting of the Bibliographical Society of Canada will take place during the Congress of Social Sciences and Humanities being held at Université de Sherbrooke and Bishop's University (Sherbrooke/Lennoxville, Quebec) from June 10 to 12, 1999.

8. Call For Papers

The Bibliographical Society of Canada (www.library.utoronto.ca/~bsc) invites proposals for papers on various aspects of bibliography and the history of the book, particularly as they relate to Canada, to be delivered at the Annual Conference to be held in Sherbrooke/Lennoxville, QC from June 10-12, 1999.

It is expected that all papers will be based upon original research, and will not have been previously published.

Overviews and case studies will be considered as will proposals on related topics. Abstracts of no more than 100 words should accompany proposals.

The Bibliographical Society of Canada will hold its 1999 conference in Sherbrooke/Lennoxville, QC, in conjunction with Le groupe de recherche sur l'édition littéraire au Québec and with L'association Québécoise pour l'étude de l'imprimé. Presentations will be considered for publication in the Society's Papiers/Cahiers.

Please submit titles and abstracts of proposals by, Friday, January 1, 1999.

11. Activities

Annual General Meeting in Vancouver

The BSC/SbC Annual General Meeting was held in Vancouver, British Columbia, at the downtown campus of Simon Fraser University (Harbour Centre) on Thursday July 16, 1998. The dates and location permitted members to also participate in the accompanying SHARP (Society for the History of Authorship, Reading and Publishing) and related conferences being held there from July 15 - 22.

Six excellent papers were delivered before the Society to an audience of approximately 80 people:

Gail Edwards, University of British Columbia, "'To Increase the General Interest in British Columbia': Imperialism and the Library of the British Columbia and Yukon Church Aid Society."

Simone Vanucci, Université de Sherbrooke, "Une publication originale des franciscains du Québec: l'Almanach de Saint-François, 1917-1949."

William Barker, Memorial University of Newfoundland, "Newspapers as Evidence for the History of the Book: Newfoundland in the mid to late Nineteenth Century."

Richard Virr, McGill University, "Incunabula in Nineteenth-century Canadian Collections: a Preliminary Report."

Sheila Latham, Toronto, "The Social Production of W.O. Mitchel's The Kite."

Gwen Davies, Acadia University, "Sewell's Black Beauty and Saunder's Beautiful Joe: a Literary Dog Fight."

I would like to thank the speakers for ensuring that the Society maintained its acknowledged reputation for presenting programmes that are interesting as well as being contributions to bibliographical knowledge. I would also like to thank our President, Anne Yandle, for her effective handling of local arrangements, particularly the opening reception at which Cheap Sons of Bitches, the bibliography of the publications of Vancouver bookseller, William Hoffer, was launched. Finally, I would like to thank Anne Cowan and Deborah Kirby, of Continuing Studies at Simon Fraser University, for their outstanding organization skills, tact, and diplomacy - which were so crucial to the success of the conference.

Peter McNally
First Vice-President

History of the Book in Canada / Histoire de l'imprimé au Canada

Le projet progresse à la vitesse de l'intérêt et du bénévolat de toutes et de tous. Après la conférence de lancement du projet à Ottawa en mai 1997 qui a donné lieu à un état de la recherche sur l'histoire de l'imprimé dans les régions du Canada (voir le site internet <http://www.library.mcgill.ca/hbic/pour> les textes et pour d'autres renseignements) et après la journée d'échanges à l'occasion du congrès de SHARP à Vancouver en juillet dernier, notre Projet dispose maintenant d'un cadre conceptuel qui ressemble, pour l'essentiel, à celui qui avait été proposé et bonifié à Ottawa. Ce cadre conceptuel servira de document de base pour les co-Directeurs de chacun des trois volumes du projet qui sauront l'adapter tout en assurant une nécessaire continuité de problématique dans les trois volumes.

L'équipe des trois volumes comprend Patricia Fleming et Gilles Gallichan (volume I: 1751-1840), Fiona Black et Yvan Lamonde (II: 1840-1914), Carole Gerson et Jacques Michon (III: 1914-c. 1970). Bertrum MacDonald s'est joint à l'équipe à titre de responsable de l'équipe bibliographique, entre autres responsabilités. Nous remercions Jean-Pierre Wallot, qui avait accepté de co-diriger le volume I mais qui a dû, pour des raisons personnelles, alléger sa contribution au Projet. Les Presses de l'Université de Toronto et les Editions Fides ont accepté de publier les éditions de langue anglaise et française du Projet. L'équipe éditoriale travaille actuellement à la préparation d'une importante demande de subvention.

Les Co-Directeurs du Projet: Patricia Fleming et Yvan Lamonde

BOOKS! BOOKS! & MORE BOOKS!

Vancouver was the world centre for the study of the book from July 15-22 when the Bibliographical Society of Canada (BSC), the Society for the History of Authorship, Reading & Publishing (SHARP), the Research Society for Victorian Periodicals (RSVP) and the History of the Book Projects for Canada and Australia had their meetings there. Over 258 participants from Canada, the United States, England, Scotland, Northern Ireland, Hungary, Sweden, France, South Africa, New Zealand, Australia and Malaysia were in attendance. (Thanks to Dr. Richard Virr, McGill University for this brief note.)

Special Collections Interest Group, CLA

The Special Collections Interest Group hosted an entertaining and informative session on June 21st at the Canadian Libraries Association's annual conference in Victoria, BC. The title of the meeting was "Book Collecting: A West Coast Perspective." Perspectives included the place of the private collector, the antiquarian bookseller and the role of the institution in the world of rare book and manuscript collecting. Participants included John Bovey, the former British Columbia, Provincial Archivist, Dr. Wallace Chung, private collector, John Keenleyside, private collector and Stephen Lunsford, Vancouver, Antiquarian Book Dealer. (See Conferences below for the 1999 Special Collections Interest Group Program.)

GIS for Book History – Call for Collaborations

The concept and rationale for using geographic information systems (GIS) technology for aspects of book history are presented in Fiona A. Black and Bertrum H. MacDonald and J. Malcolm W. Black "Geographic Information Systems: A New Research Method for Book History." Book History 1 (1998): 11-31. Black and MacDonald seek collaborators who have, or are creating, databases related to print culture. To be applicable in a GIS the database must contain at least one field which relates to "spatial data" (e.g.) historic locations of bookshops, newspaper agents, readers, regional information regarding literacy, etc.) The proposed international project has three goals: to explore the methodology through a variety of applications concerning different aspects of book history, to aid comparative studies especially in relation to the various national histories of the book now underway, and to provide the foundation for an electronic atlas of book history.

Library History Interest Group (CLA)

A Call for Papers

The Library History Interest Group is soliciting papers for a programme on library history at the Annual Conference of the Canadian Library History Association in Toronto, Ontario, June 16-20, 1999. Particular attention will be placed on Canadian library history. Selected papers may be published by the Library History Interest Group in conjunction with CLA.

Papers are solicited which fit any one of the following categories of library history:

1. Overviews and synthesis.
2. Studies of particular individuals, institutions, of developments, which provide opportunities to derive general interpretations or else serve as case studies.
3. Methodological studies which look at various aspects of research in library history.

It is anticipated that papers will be based upon personal, funded, institutional, or degree research projects. Papers should not have been previously published elsewhere. They should be fully documented and be accompanied by illustrations where appropriate. They may be presented in either English or French.

Deadline for submission of proposals or abstracts: January 1, 1999

Deadline for completed papers: May 15, 1999.

Please submit proposals to:

RBMS Pre-Conference 1999 in Montreal

In June 1999 the American Library Association's Rare Books and Manuscript Section (RBMS) Pre-Conference which is being held in Montreal. The title of the conference is "Border Crossings", panels and papers will be delivered addressing the theme of "crossing borders" which can include geography, disciplines, formats, and technology. This is the second time that the RBMS Pre-Conference has been held outside the United States. The BSC will host a special session on Canadian Bibliography. BSC members are encouraged to attend the Pre-Conference. More complete information on the conference will be included in the Spring 1999 issue of the bulletin.

14. Exhibitions

Here is a list of several recent and forthcoming exhibitions in rare book libraries across Canada.

Bruce Peel Special Collections Library,
University of Alberta
September to December 1998.

"The Book of Nature: The Eighteenth Century and the Material World"

On the occasion of the 24th conference of the Canadian Society of Eighteenth-Century Studies/La Société canadienne d'étude du dix-huitième siècle, held at the University of Alberta, September 17-20th. The books on display represent the range of holdings which exemplify the ingenious ways eighteenth-century authors helped to test, apply, and mediate ideas in diverse materials realms. Exhibition and catalogue edited/created by Susan Liepert, Department of English.

"Adversaria: Sixteenth-Century Books and the Traces of Their Readers"

An exhibition celebrating a conference hosted by the Medieval & Early Modern Institute, University of Alberta. October 1-3rd. This unusual exhibition, curated by Dr. John Considine, Department of English traces the interaction of readers and their 16th century books. From evidence of how books were shelved and stored to owners' signatures, to marginal comment and correction, even to childrens' doodles.

BIBSOCAN The Internet Discussion Group on Bibliography:

BIBSOCAN is an open, unmoderated discussion group dealing with the subject of bibliography. While groups such as SHARP-L, EXLIBRIS and BIBSOFT discuss ancillary aspects, they do not address themselves specifically to questions of a bibliographical nature.

A majority of bibliographers are self-taught. This group serves as a forum where knowledge of techniques are shared and solutions to problems proffered and those who are more skilled share their experience and knowledge with those who are still finding their way. News of bibliographical events, conferences, meetings and publications are also posted.

Although the list is sponsored by The Bibliographical Society of Canada /La Société bibliographique du Canada, it is the hope of the Society that the group will not be confined to Canadian bibliography and bibliographers but will be international in scope.
