

The principal aims of The Bibliographical Society of Canada are to promote bibliographical publications; to encourage the preservation and to extend the knowledge of printed works and manuscripts, particularly those relating to Canada; to facilitate the exchange of information concerning rare Canadiana; to coordinate bibliographical activity, and to set standards.

The Bernard Amtmann Fellowship is offered in memory of Bernard Amtmann (1907-1979), the noted bookseller and specialist in Canadiana. The Fellowship was instituted in 1992 and is offered to support the work of a scholar engaged in one of Bernard Amtmann's principal areas of interest: Canadiana, book collecting, bookselling and bibliography. Special consideration is given to applications from those working on some aspect of the book trade. The Fellowship, which is in the amount of $1,500, is also open to non-Canadians and to those who are not members of the Society.

The Fellowship will be awarded only in support of specific research projects involving discrete areas of research. Projects that are part of some larger undertaking will not be considered unless they can be completed on their own, and can lead to findings that are reportable or publishable in themselves.

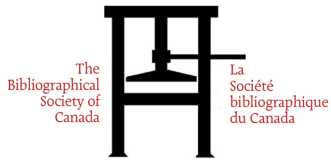

All scholars may apply, except the members of the Bibliographical Society of Canada Executive and Awards and Fellowships Committees.

The funds available are for out-of-pocket expenses such as travel fares and subsistence, and technical services or supplies, and may not be used for salaries or stipends.

See <https://www.bsc-sbc.ca/en/fellowship-awards/recipient-of-the-amtmann-fellowship/> for a list of past recipients and their projects.

The completed application should be sent to fellowships\_bourses@bsc-sbc.ca no later than 23 January 2023. Electronic applications are preferred. If submitting electronically is not possible, a hard copy of the completed application may be sent to:
