

About the Marie Tremaine Fellowship and Eligibility

Marie Tremaine, 1902-1984

The Marie Tremaine Fellowship is offered in memory and through the generosity of Marie Tremaine (1902-1984), the doyenne of Canadian bibliographers. Dr. Tremaine was an outstanding scholar of early Canadiana, whose publications on bibliography and history of printing in Canada are considered foundational. The Fellowship was instituted in 1987 and is offered annually to support the work of a scholar engaged in some area of bibliographical research, including textual studies and publishing history and with a particular emphasis on Canada.

The amount of the Fellowship is $2,000.00. The recipient of the Fellowship also receives a free one-year membership in the Bibliographical Society of Canada.

The Fellowship will be awarded only in support of specific research projects involving discrete areas of research. Projects that are part of some larger undertaking will not be considered unless they can be completed on their own, and can lead to findings that are reportable or publishable in themselves.

All scholars may apply, except the members of the Bibliographical Society of Canada Executive and Awards and Fellowships Committees.

The funds available are for out-of-pocket expenses such as travel fares and subsistence, and technical services or supplies, and may not be used for salaries or stipends.

See <http://www.bsc-sbc.ca/en/fellowship-awards/recipients-of-the-marie-tremaine-fellowship/> for a list of past recipients and their projects.
